GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF TASK(S) AND OBJECTIVES TO BE ACHIEVED

Under the overall guidance of the FAO Representative and the direct supervision of Mr Abdelhak Laiti, Assistant FAO Representative (Programme), the intern will support fisheries and aquaculture related projects and activities that contribute to FAO programme in Morocco through the following tasks:

1) Conduct a review of FAO's activities on youth employment in agriculture and prepare a draft report
2) Conduct a literature search, in both academic journals and grey literature, for information on youth employment in the agriculture sector (in its large sense) in Africa, with emphasis in North Africa, looking at trends and context and identifying special initiatives.
3) Conduct a literature review on incubator initiatives with a view to supporting young people to start their business in the agriculture sector
4) Conduct interviews on selected youth employment/incubator initiatives based on a questionnaire to be developed.
5) Prepare a draft report on the literature review and interviews conducted that will be used as a benchmarking in terms of types of business models for youth employment and entrepreneurships in rural areas.
6) Contribute to the development of communication material and raise the visibility of FAO's contribution to the employment sector.
7) Contribute to FAO-Morocco programme team, as needed.
8) Perform other tasks as required.
